Nominee's Motivation

I have served on the UKSU Exec since 2009. I have experience in the area of labour relations. Aiming to serve the members of this Union on a voluntary basis. The love for justice and fairness is what UKSU stands for, and being part of the Exec has engrained this belief in me.

By completing and signing this nomination form, the nominee commits to the responsibilities related to promoting the interest of the Union and its members. The roles include but are not limited to the following:

- acceptance of the responsibilities of an Executive member of UKSU as detailed in the UKSU Constitution, including fiduciary responsibilities;
- attendance at Executive and special meetings;
- participation in the various University constituencies requiring UKSU attendance;
- being available when required to represent members in University matters by engaging line managers, representing members at disciplinary and grievance hearings;
- be active in recruitment of new members and engagement with current members.

Guidance and training are provided.
