Nominee's Motivation

I have held a position on the UKSU representative committee for many years (10 or more years, I think). I have experience representing staff in hearings, ADR, etc. I have basic knowledge of labour law.
I am passionate about progressing the cause of staff at UKZN.

By completing and signing this nomination form, the nominee commits to the responsibilities related to promoting the interest of the Union and its members. The roles include but are not limited to the following:

- acceptance of the responsibilities of an Executive member of UKSU as detailed in the UKSU Constitution, including fiduciary responsibilities;
- attendance at Executive and special meetings;
- participation in the various University constituencies requiring UKSU attendance;
- being available when required to represent members in University matters by engaging line managers, representing members at disciplinary and grievance hearings;
- be active in recruitment of new members and engagement with current members.

Guidance and training are provided.
